

AAP Advocacy & Public Policy Leadership Program

Legislative Curriculum – Helpful References

Introduction – Health Policy and Psychiatry

Session 1 - Thriving as a Physician Advocate: Developing your Skills

- Congressional Check-up: A Guide to Physician Advocacy – American Medical Association (AMA)
- From emails to handshakes: Making a difference on Capitol Hill – Infectious Diseases Society of America (IDSA)

Session 2 - The Basics of the Legislative & Budgeting Processes

- Legislative processes
 - Congressional Procedures, Rules and Norms – GOVtrack.us
 - Legislative Branch – Library of Congress > Research Guides
 - How a Bill Becomes a Law – Zero to Three
 - How a bill becomes a law – National Human Genome Research Institute
- Federal budgeting process and timelines
 - Federal Budget: Sources of Information – Library of Congress > Research Guides
 - How Does the Federal Budget Process Work? – In: The Tax Policy Briefing Book by Urban Institute & Brookings Institution
- Rulemaking Processes and the Administrative Procedure Act (APA)
 - A Brief Overview of Rulemaking and Judicial Review – Congressional Research Service
- Congressional Budget Office (CBO)
 - History of the Congressional Budget Office – CBO
 - The Federal Budget Process and the Role of the Congressional Budget Office – CBO

Session 3 - Building Strategic Coalitions in Rehab

- Policy Priorities – American Medical Rehabilitation Providers Association (AMRPA)
- Tips for Building and Managing a Successful Coalition – Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health

Session 4 - Do's and Don'ts of Lobbying: Preparing to Speak to Legislators

- Advocacy Tips – Association of Academic Physiatrists (AAP)
- Tips for Effective Advocacy – American College of Physicians (ACP)
- Helpful Hints for Capitol Hill Meetings – American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP)
 - Has a profoundly important bullet about campaign finance law that is good to review!
- 7 tips for physicians looking to connect with lawmakers – American Medical Association (AMA)